

Section 1: Student Details

Student Full Name		Date of Birth
Student Marital Status		Student Mobile No
Agent/Referee Name		Student Location:	Offshore      Onshore

Evidence you have enough money for your stay

The Department of Home Affairs (DHA) requests that to request a student visa application, you must provide evidence that has enough funds to cover your:

- Travel costs.
- 12 months of living (or pro rata fees, if you are staying less than 12 months).
- 12 months of course fees for you and your accompanying family member (or pro rata fees, if the course is less than 12 months)

Alternatively, you can provide evidence that your spouse or parents are willing to support you and they have a certain minimum annual income.

Details on the amount of funds or minimum annual income figures to show that you meet the financial capacity requirement is available at this link: <https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/visas/getting-a-visa/visa-listing/student-500#HowTo>

Section 2: Financial Table and Funding Information

The living costs we ask you to declare and provide with your visa application is the minimum amount of money you need for the purpose of the visa. Actual living costs vary throughout Australia. They may be much higher than what you need for the visa. We recommend you research the area you intend to live including the cost of living in that area.

Sufficient funds documents must be available for you and each of your dependents at the time of application and must meet the college requirements to be considered.

How will you be funding the amount declared?

Self-funded

Sponsored (private)

Bank Loan

Approved by government/corporate sponsor

If you selected more than one option, please briefly explain below:

Section 3: Financial Documents

There are options to prove you have enough money for your stay. You could give us evidence of the following:

- Deposits of money from a financial institution
- Government loans or loans from a financial institution
- Scholarships or similar financial support.
- Annual income: Alternatively, you can provide evidence your parents or your partner had a personal annual income of at least AUD 72,465 in the 12 months immediately before you apply. If you bring family members, you must show your parents' or partner's income is at least AUD 84,543.

If both your parents are working we can consider their combined income. Provide evidence of your parents' or partner's income in the form of official government documents such as tax assessments less than 12 months old. We won't accept bank statements or direct evidence from an employer.
